

Seed Variety Statement and Indemnification

Seed can be protected by patents and by the Plant Variety Protection Act (PVPA). Seed protected by a patent cannot be replanted without the permission of the patent owner. Seed protected by a PVPA Certificate cannot be used for seed by anyone other than the grower who originally purchased the seed. Anyone assisting a grower in violating a patent or PVPA Certificate may also be found liable.

We cannot allow any person or farm entity to pick up or deliver this seed other than the person or farm entity who originally purchased the seed.

---

Information for Each Variety to Be Conditioned

1. Variety being conditioned: _____
2. Is this variety protected by a patent? ☐ Yes ☐ No ☐ Don't Know
3. Is this variety protected by a PVPA Certificate? ☐ Yes ☐ No ☐ Don't Know
4. Will this seed be planted by you or others? ☐ Myself ☐ Others
5. Are there any limitations on use of this seed for replanting? ☐ Yes ☐ No ☐ Don't Know

---

Indemnification

The Grower agrees to reimburse (indemnify) this seed conditioner for any liability or damages that may arise from any violation of a Patent or PVPA Certificate resulting from conditioning the Grower's seed, including all damages, liability, costs, and attorney's fees. The Grower also agrees to release [conditioner] from any liability associated with the conditioning of this seed for replanting.

I understand that a sample of this seed may be retained by this Seed Conditioner and may be given to third parties for the purpose of identifying this seed.

Conditioner Name and Address: _____

Grower Signature: _____

Grower Name (Printed): _____

Grower Address: _____

Date: _____